RPO - Recruitment Process Outsourcing

AVPL is a boutique executive search firm, which provides comprehensive solutions to the Human Capital Industry. The firm works with leading and emerging companies in recruiting IT and telecom professionals in the Professional Services, Executive Search, Staffing and Outsourcing Industries. AVPL offers highly personalized services to meet and exceed clients’ expectations. With a deep market knowledge and long-established network of clients and candidates, recruiting exceptional talent and building solid teams can be achieved in less than 30 days.

AVPLs approach is built on long standing relationships and on recommendations from existing clients, ultimately becoming an extension of those client companies. A deep insight into the people dynamics and cultural values of companies enables the identification of candidates who not only have outstanding track records, but who are a spot-on culture fit. This non-transactional and consultative approach allows AVPL to deliver time after time. Customer can outsource the entire recruitment process to AVPL or certain stages.
